

CHITON ROCKS SURF LIFE SAVING CLUB

Members Accommodation and Camping Bookings - Terms and Conditions

Accommodation is only available to Contributing Members

- Contributing Individual Member
- Contributing Family Member

To be a contributing member and receive the associated benefits the member must be on a club duties roster and be actively performing those duties, be a member of a committee.

There is accommodation for up to 32 people on a shared arrangement. There are four bunk rooms with 8 Japanese-style pod beds. The fee is $5.00 per person per night. When available a member may be able to have a room to themselves but must pay the total fee for the room, a fee of $40.00 per night.

Three of the four bunk rooms have electronic locks which can be operated by a member's Fob/Key Card/Wrist Band or the key pad. Security access to these rooms will be granted once your booking has been confirmed and the payment made.

Members performing a patrol or bar duties are entitled the stay for free in the accommodation or camping area on the days they are rostered. Room 2 has been revered for that purpose and priority will be given to patrolling members. This room does not have an electronic locking system and can be easily accessed.

Please note that for multi-share bookings made less than 72 hours before arrival for more than 1 person, the Accommodation Manager will try to place everyone into the same room, but this cannot be guaranteed.

Members are permitted to camp on the lawn area, the fee is $5.00 per night per person.

All fees are to be paid in advance, payment will provide you with security access to your allocated room.

Whilst staying at the Club members must conduct themselves in a proper manner showing consideration and respect for the rights of others.

The Chiton Rocks Surf Life Saving Club provides short-term accommodation and the length of stay is generally limited to 14 days in a 90 day period. Once you have stayed the 14 nights you may be unable to return for up to 90 days. Should you wish to stay longer than the 14 days you will need to apply to the BOM for an extension. Any approval of extensions is at the sole discretion of the Board of Management. The Chiton Rocks Surf Life Saving Club is not suitable for long-term or permanent accommodation, and management reserves the right to refuse accommodation if guests are found to be using the Club for this purpose.

For booking availability please refer to the website calendar.

All nippers must still have minimum one parent or guardian as a member.

All bookings must go through the Accommodation Manager. You can contact Genny Heartfield via email on accommodation@chitonrocks.com
